Drinking Alone with the Moon

*From a pot of wine among the flowers
I drank alone. There was no one with me --
Till raising my cup, I ask the bright moon
To bring me my shadow and make us three.*

*Alas, the moon was unable to drink
And my shadow tagged me vacantly;
But still for a while I had these friends
To cheer me through the end of spring....*

*I sang. The moon encouraged me
I danced. My shadow tumbled after.*

*As long as I knew, we were born companions.
And then I was drunk, and we lost one another.*

....Shall goodwill ever be secure?

I watch the long road of the River of Stars.
